Every votary of love,
Needs must pain and pleasure prove Loves delights belong to those who have Felt loves wants and woes.

Love still bears a double chain, all his prisoners to bind Living seek they death in vain, dying life in death they find.

When he wounds or kills, he cures;

When he heals, he seems to kill -

So the love born heart endures all the extremes of good and ill.

Entrance her once it took, not how;

By wrongs, doubts, falsehoods - anything that tells a change has come upon your tenderness
And not one high thing out of Heaven her pride overmastereth - "Miles."

Important New Invention!
Australian Crystal Glass Spectacles.

The only perfect lens in existence. Superior to any other in use - constructed in accordance with the science and philosophy of nature in the peculiar form of a

Concavo-convex Ellipsis,

Admirably adapted to the organs of sight, and perfectly natural to the eye, affording altogether the best artificial help to the human vision ever invented.
Used only by the Professor of Optics and Spectacle Manufacturer.

The Advantages of these Spectacles over all others are:

1st, The only true Lens known, being perfectly free from chromatic light, so well known to be the cause of injury to the vision, and which makes the change of Spectacles to Glasses of stronger power so often required, while in many instances both near and distant objects are seen with equal facility through the same Glasses.

2d. Can be worn with perfect ease for any length of time at one sitting, giving astonishing clearness of vision, particularly by candle or other artificial light — comfort to the Spectacle wearer hitherto unknown.

3d. When the Eyes ache or pain through the action of a bright light, such as is reflected from snow, sunny weather, white paper, and in reading, writing or sewing, or vice colored bodies, these Lenses, by softening the rays, effect a most agreeable sensation and give great relief.

4th. In all nervous affections of the Eye, causing dull and startling pains in the eyeball or temple, appearance of luminous and dark spots in the atmosphere, aching or feeling like sand in the Eyes, and a disturbed nerves are quieted and smoothed.

5th. Ground ~~of~~ by peculiar machinery got up at the great cost, mathematically calculated expressly for the manufacture of this Lens, so as to produce it with the true spherical accuracy, and its focus is at the exact center, a point of vital importance and which not other lens possesses.

6th. These Spectacles are scientifically adjusted to every case of defective Sight with unerring accuracy, whether arising from age, disease, strain, overwork, or premature decay, by Dr. M. Bernhart, on a new and exact principle, entirely his own, which has seldom failed to be correct.

7th. Proof of Superiority over the old kind of Spectacles: They are used exclusively at all the hospitals for diseases of the eye in Berlin, Prussia, and elsewhere.

8th. Being the original inventor and manufacturer of the Australian Crystal Glass for Spectacles, he therefore claims that he has the only genuine article of that kind in the United States for sale.

Several years of public practice and study in the hospitals in Europe, adjusting spectacles to patients under every aspect of defective vision, as well as experience in an extensive long established business in his optical institute both here and in Europe. Dr Bernhardt considers it a sufficient guaranty of his ability to apply such glasses as are best calculated for the assistance or recovery of imperfect sight.

 On that dark, rainy, night,
 Chorus

Ten thousand foes gathered,
 With no one to pity,
 When our heroes delivered
 That flag to the city.
 Old Tickers then swore
 That he'd conquered the nation,
 Though but sixty four
 Were in the fort stationed,
 Chorus

Great Stevens, against secession,
 His eloquence used,
 Yet excepted a position,
 In the land that he loved,
 While Lee, for opinions,
 Heroically wrought,
 And with his virginians,
 Most gallantly fought,
 Chorus

God help the foul traitor,
 Who so murderously planned,
 To shoot the great leader,
 In freedom's fair land,
 A most cowardly traitor,
 Death's messenger sped,
 And shrouded with horror,
 Great Lincoln was dead,
 Chorus

That play to the city
Old Pickens then swore
That he'd conquered the nation,
Though but sixty four
Were in the fort stationed,
Chorus

Great Stevens, against secession,
His eloquence used,
Yet excepted a position,
By the land that he loved,
While Lee, for opinion's,
Heroically brought,
And with his virgins,
Most gallantly fought,
Chorus

God help the foul traitor,
Who so murderously planned,
To shoot the great leader,
In freedom's fair land,
A most cowardly traitor,
Death's messenger sped,
And shrouded with honor,
Great Lincoln was dead.
Chorus

Where is ~~Wiz~~, the foul fiend,
By just heaven's overlakers,
And at a ropes end,
In the air left vibrating,
Devils, waited in legions,
While the noose was adjusted,
In their hot dominions,
He has long since been roasted.
Chorus

O God help the ~~widow~~.
Why will mournfully stand,
O'er the low drooping willow
In her dear native land,
By the grave of the loved one,
Who for liberty stood,
Where freedom's escutcheon,
Was dyed with his blood,
Chorus

The Bright Stars and Broad Stripes,
 National Song and Chorus,
 By O. B. Hastings, of Selma Ala,
 Composed from thoughts suggested,
 By witnessing the martial display of the regimental band of the eighth Iowa, while on parade through the streets of a conquered, southern city, on the birthday of the immortal Washington. To the officers, and soldiers, of the gallant eighth Iowa, these lines are respectfully dedicated.
 All hail freemen bold,
 Who with hearts brave and true, stood with pride, beneath the folds,
 Of the red, white, and blue,
 And struck terror to treason,
 That had reared its foul head,
 In the land where for freedom,
 Brave Marion, fled!

Chorus

The bright stars and broad stripes,
 O'er our whole country waves.
 That play in its might,
 Carried freedom to slaves,

Who were those who, while, standing,
 Where cannon did rattle,
 At shiloh's dread landing,
 In the van of the battle,
 Upheld that bright emblem
 Their brave fathers had won,
 While fighting for freedom
 With our great Washington,

Chorus

They were champions of freedom,
 And when treason had shed,
 A pall o'er our nation,
 By raising its head,
 Freedom,

Who were those who, while, standing
Where cannon did rattle,
At Shiloh's dread landing,
In the van of the battle,
Upheld that bright emblem
Their brave fathers had won,
While fighting for freedom
With our great Washington,
Chorus

They were champions of freedom,
And when treason had shed,<
It fell o'er our nation,
By raising its head,
They stood nobly for freedom,
In the hour of our need,
And fought against mad treason,
Where many did bleed,
Chorus

They're from prairie, and parlor,
In the beautiful west,
And for their stern valor, their
Their country is blessed,
With peace, and with honor,
And the nations of earth,
O may they never wander,
From the land of their birth,
Chorus

Where now is the vile sand,
Who so madly were trailing,
Our flag in the sand,
That our banner was waving,
When Grant cooled their ardor, Secession was dead.
